

1955

Sequoia

The yearbook staff presents the 1955 Sequoia, which they hope will preserve the pictures of the students of A. T. H. S. and record the many activities which have occupied the students during the school year. The staff feels that the highlights of these activities, as reflected in the school bulletin boards, are evidence of the growth and maturity achieved between the time the freshmen enter high school and the seniors leave with their diplomas. It is upon the student equipped with knowledge and skills acquired through well-balanced activity that the promise of the future shines.

PROM SUGGESTIONS

Juniors

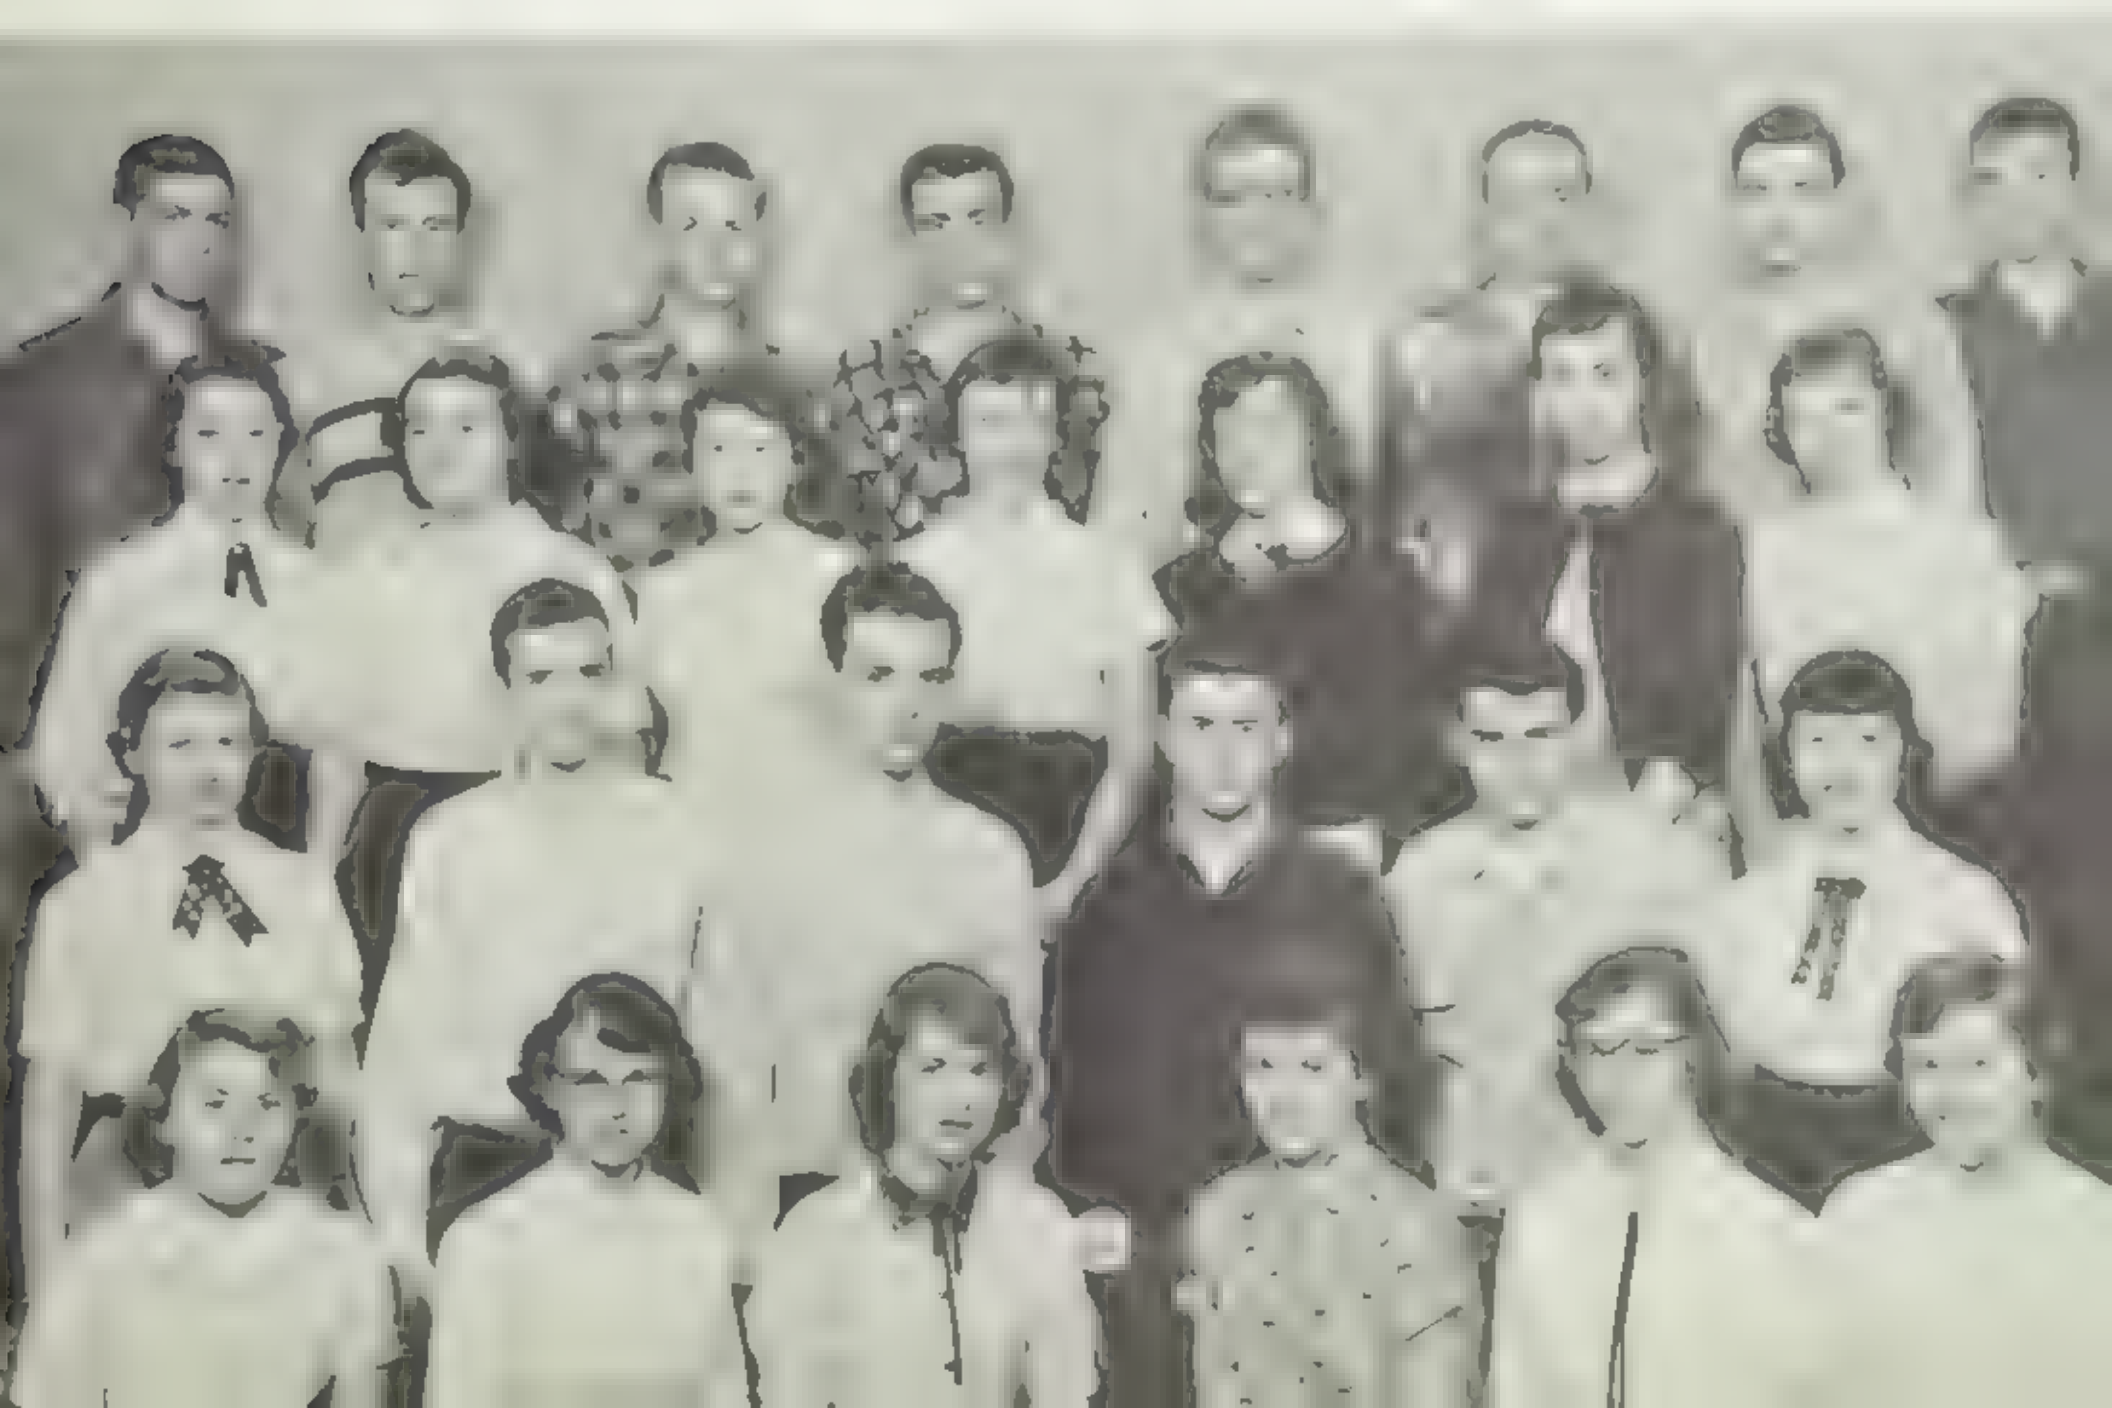

The junior class play, "We Shook the Family Tree," was presented on November 12 and 13 to raise money for the class. The juniors also sponsored the candy store where they sold candy and school supplies to raise money for the prom, which was held in May

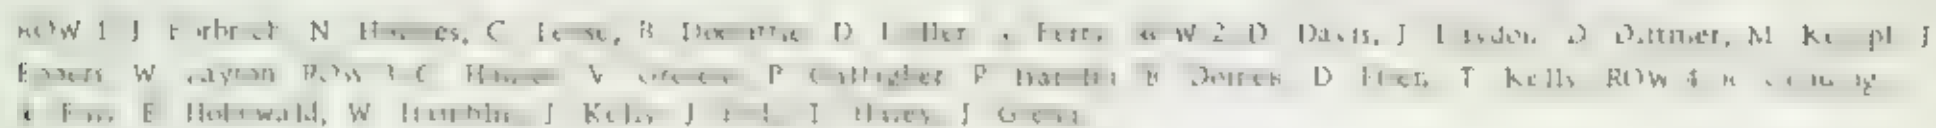

The class rings were chosen in October and arrived in February. Ed Reed, Joan Forbrich, and Robert Cain were the Student Council representatives; and Pat Gallagher, escorted by Donald Wertz, was our attendant to the Homecoming Queen

One of the class activities for the freshmen was collecting clothing in the spring for the Carnegie Endowment International Center to send to needy children in the United States, Europe, and Asia. In the fall the freshmen took charge of the Homecoming bonfire and entered a float in the parade. Rose Ellen Furlan, with Don Cullimore as her escort, was the freshman attendant to the Homecoming queen.

Student Council representatives for the year were Robert Ecklund, Jim Berke, and Cathy Arndt.

The classmates of Melvin Wohlfeil wish to express their sincere sorrow over his sudden death on October 14, 1954. He was killed instantly in an auto accident involving two other Antioch students on Homecoming Eve.

Before his passing "Butch" was an active member of our school's football and baseball teams and a member of C. Y. O.

In Memoriam

This picture records one of his happiest moments in the winter of '53 when he shot two Canadian Blue geese, weighing a total of forty-one pounds.

Clubs

The Student Council, under the guidance of Mrs. Tulumello, sponsors many of the school's social activities, one of the biggest of which is Homecoming. Others include professional assemblies, the Freedom Drive, the Thanksgiving and Christmas programs, and talent shows which are put on by the separate classes. Some of the annual money-making projects are the sale of Christmas cards, popcorn at the games, and school pennants and pins

Latin Club

The Latin Club, whose members are Latin students of this or previous years, met during the year with assistance from Miss Wehr.

The officers were inducted in a formal candlelight ceremony at the November meeting. The Christmas party followed the pattern of the Saturnalia, the holiday when the Romans gave thanks to Saturn for bountiful crops.

Slides and a movie illustrating Roman private life were other features of the year. An Ides of March party and a field trip to see the Roman exhibit in the Museum of Natural History in Chicago as well as a Roman banquet were planned for the spring meetings.

The Antioch High School Coin Club was organized for the purpose of improving the coin collection of its members through trading. The club, established through the common interest in coin collecting, meets approximately twice a month. Its members not only trade and buy old currency, but they are also making new acquaintances by urging new members to join.

The F. H. A. is composed of girls who study home economics. They won second prize with their float in the Homecoming parade, and as a club project, they sent Red Cross gift boxes to Europe. Mothers of the girls were guests at the formal installation and tea in November, and fathers were invited to a Daddy Date Night in February.

Other activities for the year were a bake sale, a dance after a game, and a spring rally in McHenry.

Sheryl Mair was the Antioch representative at the state leadership training camp at Bloomington during the summer of 1954.

A few highlights of this year's G. A. A. schedule were three swimming parties at the Waukegan Y. M. C. A., the Christmas party, the mother-daughter banquet in the spring, and several roller-skating parties. In October the entire school enjoyed the memorable G. A. A. initiation, which proved to be fun even for those who were being initiated.

These activities were only additions to the exciting volleyball, basketball, and baseball games played by chosen teams throughout the year.

Activities

1954 Homecoming

The largest crowd in its history attended Antioch's 1954 Homecoming. The parade was extremely successful due to the participation of clubs, classes, and organizations.

Following the game with Glenbrook, which spouted a 18 to 6 victory over the Sequoits, the dance was held in the gymnasium where music was provided by Frank Marocco and his band

Frank Laurie and his orchestra played at the traditional Christmas Formal, sponsored by the seniors on December 23.

Paula Carney and Jack Lawrence reigned as King and Queen.

The beautiful decorations centered about an illuminated, snow-covered Christmas tree.

Prom Night

This is the night! Soft lights, cool breezes, and sweet music float dizzily in the air. Dancing couples sway rhythmically to the beat of a fox trot or waltz. The faces you see are alive with excitement, enchantment, and gaiety. Excited, pleasurable voices buzz around the punch table. Each couple entering across the bridge stars momentarily in a flood of light.

Suddenly the lights go out--a spotlight catches the climax of the evening, the presentation of the Queen and Her court. A silhouette, a dance, a kiss, and the crowning of the King and Queen amidst a barrage of "souvenir" flash cameras.

A few more lively dances, one more cup of punch, couples scurrying to their cars, dinner at the Edgewater Beach-----

A NIGHT TO REMEMBER!!!

This year's jazz band, the Sequoia Music Makers, was formed by the students and chose Paul Mattson as their leader. Nancy Rentner acted as the secretary.

The band performed at many pep assemblies throughout the year, playing popular pieces in modern arrangements.

They also played at the Teen-Town Dance in November, which was put on for the benefit of the Youth Center.

The Boy's Glee Club, which met once a week, sang at assemblies. The president chosen was Don Cardiff, and Bob Terry acted as secretary.

A five man jug and bottle band was formed, which proved very entertaining to both boys and students.

A. T. H. S. Band

The music department of A. T. H. S. grew this year with the addition of a newly formed Boys' Glee Club and many trios, quartets and sextets which have come from the A Cappella Choir and Girls' Glee Club.

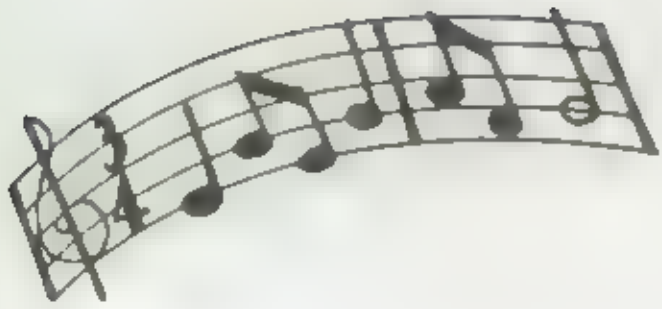

This year the music students presented four programs for the public with a fall band concert, a candlelight Christmas concert with the band and vocal groups performing together, a spring band program, and a spring vocal recital

On April 25 the Antioch musicians were host to between 600 and 700 music students for the Annual Northwest Conference Music Contest and on March 12 and April 2 approximately 4,000 students gathered at A. T. H. S. for the District Music Contest

Champions

Three championship titles were the reward for a highly successful year in athletics for A. T. H. S.

The varsity basketball team, with Mr. Scott as coach, copped first place honors in the conference for the third consecutive year, having won undisputed first place in 1953 and 1955 and having shared the title with Grant High School in 1954. The 1955 trophy was not available for a picture as the annual went to press, but the other two trophies represent the 1953 and 1954 titles. The actual basket was the one Mr. Dittman promised the team would be in the trophy case if they defeated Grant last year.

The freshman-sophomore basketball team, under Mr. Polley's direction, won their second consecutive championship this year after having shared last year's honor with Grant. Their trophy is the one in the lower left of the picture.

The 1953-1954 baseball conference champions under the coaching of Mr. Scott and his assistant, Mr. Grady, earned the trophy in the middle of the bottom shelf.

Talent

During the year each of the four classes presented a talent show for the student body. The winners of these shows later participated in the second annual talent show for the community or were sent to Downey Hospital, Antioch Grade School, or Lake Villa Grade School to present a program.

Profits from the community show will be used to pay for professional assemblies for the student body.

Show

The acts pictured here are a few of those that were presented at the Community Talent Show on April 30.

1. Jay Cribb 2. Ray Van Patten
3. Cain's Cotton Pickers 4. Tap-
